

Program

Online study visit in Brittany

November 26, 2020 (10.00am – 12.30am)

10h00 Welcoming words by Biotech Santé Bretagne

10h10 - 10h45 Presentation of GCS e-Santé and Région Bretagne : role of these institutions, why e-Health is a key innovation sector in Brittany? on their involvement into the INTENCIVE project as stakeholders :

By Renaud LEFEVRE, Director of GCS e-Santé

By Mathilde LE NAIN, Head of projects in health regional policy - Région Bretagne

& Anne-Laure BAUDRIER, Head of innovation – Région Bretagne

Presentation of good practices:

10h45 – 11h10 e-KerMed : the regional portal for telemedicine service offer in Brittany

By Dr Marie COSTES, Medical coordinator of telemedicine in Geriatrics– Rennes Hospital

11h10-11h35 The experience of Pôle St Hélier in Telemedecine for chronic wounds.

By Dr Sandrine ROBINEAU, PMR- Neurology- Telemedecine – Pôle St Hélier

11h35- 12h00 REHAB-LAB of Kerpape rehabilitation centre: 3D printing at the service of disabled people for designing their own assistive devices.

By Willy ALLEGRE, Engineer- REHAB LAB

12h00-12h25 VIGILANS and Sys-vision application : a tailor made surveillance of individuals discharged from hospital after a suicide attempt.

By Dr Sofian BERROUIGUET, Responsible for psychiatric emergencies- Brest Hospital

-Lunch break -

Thematic workshop

“e-Health in innovation eco-systems”

November 26, 2020 (14h00- 15h30)

14h00- 14h30 Presentation of ECHALLIANCE network: “The benefits of transnational and interregional e-health networks and ecosystems in relation to innovation”

By Gregor CUZAK, International Ecosystem Coordinator- Echalliance

Questions

14h30-15h00 Presentation of Brittany eco-system in the field of innovation

(benefits, future perspectives, how to develop it ?)

By Anne-Claude LEFEBVRE, Director of Biotech Santé Bretagne

Questions

15h00-15h30 Presentation of Finland eco-system in relation with innovation

By Sami PERALA, Developing Manager, Well Being Technology - Seinäjoki University of Applied Sciences

Questions

Conclusions of the day.